Creditor Pro Se Case No: 1923649 (Roo) v.
Declaration In Support of Purdue Pharma LP,
ET AL, of Motion for Extension Debtors of Bar
Date and Clarity.

(1.) Comes Now Creditor to Clarify His Living Conditions and Better Explain for His Delay
In Filing opioid Claim And Personal Injury
Claim. I Wayne M. Miller Make This Declaration In Support of "Extension of Bar
Date And to Better Explain Reasons for Delay In Filing.

Creditor Has Been Incarcerated Since September 29, 2018 This Contributed to the Delay. March 2020, Jails And Prisons
Went On Lockdown To Prevent The Spread of Covid-19. Halting Any Ability I had to Communicate With The Out-Side World Which Contributed To The Delay Also.
As Soon AS Creditor Was Able To, He Wrote
To Purdue Pharma Claims for Claim Forms Via Mail, This Also Contributed To The Delay

Forms Were Recieved By The Prime Clerk.
At The Same Time Of Creditors Attempt TO File Claims, The United States Postal Service
Was Slowed Down Due To The Pandemic. This Was Out of My Control And Contributed TO The Delay.

Covid-19 Hit The United States, And The Country
Went on Lockdown, Halting And Placing Me Into Even Worse ISolation And Lockdown. This Stopped
And Limited All Communications And All Interactions With Those From The Outside World. This Was An Act of God And Out of My Control, And Contributed Greatly To My Ability To File In A Timely Manner. My Claims Were Filed Once I Became Aware Of Possible Error In My Filing. I Was Not Aware of Bar Date until After My Claim Was Filed, Which Also Contributed To My Delay.

The Creditor Wishes To Better Clarify For This Great Court of New York, His Inability To Gather Information About The Goings-on In The World Outside of Prison And In Society In General.

Creditor Also Wants To Make Sure The Court Has A Good Understanding, That The Jails/Prisons In Washington State, Will Not provide Pro-Se Creditors With The Means To Attend The Telephonic Hearings. Creditor Apologizes For This Inconvenience And Requests of This Court. To use This Declaration to make An Informative Decision In Regards To His Request For:
"Acceptance of Claims Filed After Bar Date Excusable Neglect"

I Wayne Michael Miller, Declare under The Penalty of Perjury Under The Laws of The United States of America, The foregoing IS True And Correct.

Respectfully,

Wayne M. Miller
